

empowering youth through multimedia

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact John Boyack
Phone (801) 532-7500
E-Mail john@spyhop.org

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints Recognizes Spy Hop Productions and Other Area Non-profits as Local Community Service Leaders

September 2, 2008, Salt Lake City – The Utah Salt Lake Area Public Affairs Council of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints honored Salt Lake City community service leader Spy Hop Productions at a special luncheon held from 11:30 to 1:00 p.m. in The Ambassador of the Joseph Smith Memorial Building's 10th floor on Tuesday, September 16th.

Salt Lake Area Public Affairs Council Chairman, Scott Parker, and community leader, Rick Horne recommended Spy Hop Productions to be honored at the luncheon.

Other organizations to be honored that day include: English Skills Learning Center, Family Support Center, Salt Lake Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners, Rape Recovery Center, and Life-Line, Inc.

The LDS Church will have members of the Public Affairs Department, the Utah Salt Lake Area Public Affairs Council, the LDS Director of Temporal Affairs for the Salt Lake Area, and the acting LDS Welfare Services Director, along with Elder Ronald A. Rasband of the Presidency of the Seventy.

ABOUT SPY HOP PRODUCTIONS

Spy Hop Productions is a not-for-profit youth media arts and education center whose purpose is to empower youth to express their voice and with it create positive change in their lives, their community, and the world.

Our mission is to encourage free expression, self-discovery, critical and inventive thinking, and skilled participation via the big screen, the airwaves, and the World Wide Web. For more information, please visit www.spyhop.org.